

THEY CALLED IT A RALLI SHOOT.

Riverton Gun Club Sprung a Novel Event, in Which Luck Cut Much Ice.

QUAKERS WON THE PRIZES.

Many New Yorkers Shot, but They Were Loaded Down with Handicaps.

A BIG MATCH IS ON THE TAPIS.

Weich and Murphy to Meet Duryea and McAlpin, One Hundred Birds Per Man for $1,000 a Side.

By Duncan Curry.

Wing shots from all over the country gathered at the picturesque grounds of the Riverton Gun Club, on the banks of the Delaware, yesterday to take part in the two days' tournament of Philadelphia's leading sporting organization. The programme, which includes a number of new and novel events, consisted of what was known as a Ralli shoot and two handicap affairs at twenty and thirty birds each. While a number of New York clubmen participated and shot fairly well, the Philadelphians carried off the lion's share of the honors.

While high scores were plentiful, and some of the local talent were fairly loaded down with allowances, the chief excitement of the day was furnished by a challenge issued by Robert A. Weich, the amateur champion, in which he announced that he and Edgar Gibbs Murphy, the ex-champion, would shoot any two amateurs in the country a team match, 100 birds per man, for $1,000 a side.

The challenge was accepted by Murphy, who immediately telegraphed Weich, asking his consent to bind the match to the interest of sport. It was hoped that Murphy can spare the time to shoot, as a match between these two birds in the trap-shooting world would be worth going miles to see.

The long talked of match between Weich and McAlpin will probably not take place, as Weich, when Murphy approached him on the subject, said that he was not ready to shoot against him at the present time.

The Ralli shoot, which was the principal novelty in yesterday's programme, consisted of dividing the grounds into ten parts of a circle and putting a shooter in each division. The shooter was to move from one place to the right and the operation was repeated until each man had a shot in each division. The shooter who made the greatest number of birds was declared the winner.

It was a gamble, pure and simple, and luck rather than skill played an important part in the result. The winner turned up in Dr. Daniel Kane, of Philadelphia, who gathered 22. H. S. McAlpin was second with 19, but the New Yorker had the hard luck to drop seven birds in his neighbor's territory. The other winners were: J. M. Hawkins, 18; W. R. Ellison, 14; Harry Tucker, 14; Hazen Carstairs, 13; Harvey McMurphy, 12; W. Ferguson, Jr., 11; D. Wilson, 10; and E. Tolson, 9.

A twenty-bird handicap event followed, in which S. Dickinson and Hazen Carstairs retained an allowance of six misses as no birds. After a close contest McMurphy, the Buffalo expert, and T. Douglas killed twenty straight and divided first money with Dickinson, who only used five of his six misses. Rollo Helkes also did good work, killing all but one bird from the thirty-one shot, which he counted as a miss. The thirty-yard mark, had the misfortune to see two of his birds die outside.

In the thirty-bird event J. Weich (no relation to the champion) shot with the only straight score. H. O. Helkes, a Grand American Handicap winner, was second, with twenty-one birds. The other winners were: Phillips, L. T. Duryea, T. Douglas and H. McMurphy tied for third money, with scores of twenty-seven each.

Today there will be a sixty-bird handicap event, $500 entrance fee, in which the contestants will shoot at twenty birds on each of the three grounds. The winner will receive $1,000, and the runner-up $500. Handicap sweep at 20 birds; $100 entrance; handicap and first allowance, 50 per cent to winner, 25 per cent to second, 15 per cent to third and 10 per cent to fourth.

PAPA BOB FITZSIMMONS.

Another Son, Weighing Twelve Pounds at Birth, Arrives at the Home of the Pugilist.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Champion Bob Fitzsimmons is the father of a bouncing boy. The little one arrived late on Thursday night at the Fitzsimmons home at aristocratic Rye, on the Sound. The baby has light blue eyes, light reddish hair and greatly resembles his father. When the new arrival was weighed he tipped the scales at twelve pounds, and Dr. Wolf, the attending physician, says he is the best developed boy he has ever seen. Both Mrs. Fitzsimmons and the baby are doing well. The mother's joy was greatly alloyed by the absence of her husband, who is now playing in Cincinnati. As soon as the infant was born a dispatch was sent to the champion. Here is his reply:

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 14.

To Mrs. Robert J. Fitzsimmons, Rye, N. Y.

Bob.

It is rumored that the boy will be named Robert J. Fitzsimmons, Jr.

Fitzsimmons' progeny now numbers the mystic three, and Bob will undoubtedly try to make his new son another great pugilist in order to test the old saying that there is luck in numbers. His other two children are also boys. The oldest, who is ten years old, is the child of Bob's first wife. The first boy of the Cornishmans' present wife is now two years old. The ten-year-old boy is the proud owner of the smallest pony in the county, and is often seen driving about the streets of the village, guarded by the Great Dane dog Yarrum, attracting almost as much attention as his father.

Princeton, Oct. 15.—The Tigers will line up against the Indians to-morrow in better condition physically than has been expected these last few days. It is barely possible that many of the men who will begin the contest for Princeton will not last the game through, but several players who we expected would be unable to line up at all will be in their customary places for part of the game at least. A day's rest has proved so beneficial for Holt that there is little doubt that he will be as strong as ever. Armstrong will play his initial game of the season. Booth has fully recovered the use of a game knee, and Baird's bruises are not serious enough to handicap him badly. Kelly's sprained ankle has sufficiently improved to allow him to play one half, and the Tigers will go into the game in very good condition to play a hard contest.
